

Peace-Building through Teacher Training and Development ~ Learning with African Educators ~

UNESCO-IICBA in collaboration with CICE/Hiroshima University and
Faculty of Human Sciences, Department of Education/Sophia University

STUDY-TOUR INTERACTIVE REPORTING SESSION

with educators from
Algeria, Burkina Faso,
Cameroon,
Central African Republic,
Chad, Ethiopia,
Mali, Mauritania, Niger,
Nigeria, and Senegal

As part of UNESCO-IICBA's Japan-supported project, Youth Empowerment for Peace and Resilience Building and Prevention of Violent Extremism through Teacher Development for Sahel Countries, a total of 21 trainers and policy administrators will travel to Tokyo and Hiroshima, Japan to undergo training, visit relevant government departments, participate in discussions and attend lectures. At this reporting session, participants from the 11 participating countries will share what they have learned from Japan's approach to education and peace-building through teacher training and development.

Date: 7 August 2018

Time: 2:00pm - 4:00pm

Venue: Sophia University

Yotsuya Campus Bldg.No.2, Room 508

Language: English and French

日時：2018年8月7日

時間：午後2時～4時

場所：上智大学四谷キャンパス

2号館5階508教室

言語：フランス語・英語

Please register online in advance at <https://goo.gl/E5yyNf>

For more info, please contact: CICE (Center for the Study of International Cooperation in Education)
Hiroshima University, Email: tomomi@hiroshima-u.ac.jp (Tomomi Yamane)

