

2023-10-03

Report

Title: Trend and Caveats in international cooperation in Education

Lecturer: Yoshida Sensei

Contents: The lecture commenced with the introduction of career of Yoshida Sensei. In the part 1, he provided with the knowledge about Global agenda and Framework for the educational development, and enumerated, discussed the Global declaration and change. The fact of the problem, which developing countries do not provide the rich education despite of existence of the change seemed impressed for the trainees. In the part 2, Global Aid Architecture for education development was showed the trainees, being explained the history, modality, and the reality of financial aids at the moment.

Report

Title: Introduction to Education in Japan: Reference information and data

Lecturer: Kuroda Norihiro Sensei

Contents: This lecture commenced with the introduction of the meaning of his name, and career, additionally explained the importance of the human resources based on the analysis in Japan which is a natural resource poor country. Moreover, he discussed the problems of each country and referred to genuine purpose of Education. The utterance that the education is provided but the learning is not taking place was arguable and impressed the trainees who are deeply related to Education in their own countries. Then, the lecture continued with the situation of entrance examination from upper secondary school to university about application, selection, decision of successful applicants. The lecturer and members discussed about the situation of entry rate to higher education with comparison between male and female. The next part of this lecture was about educational administration and financing, and the proportion of schools by establishing body, public expenditures, and revenues of local governments, and board of education system were explained. They also discussed about the teacher qualification, in-service training of teachers and teacher moonlighting. The lecture ended by talking about curriculum issues recently in foreign language teaching and learning, and some examples of school activities such as cleaning exercises.

