Title: Opening ceremony and orientation at HU

Lecturer:

Contents: On the first training day at HU, the opening ceremony was held at CICE seminar room to celebrate the arrival of trainees and commenced with the introduction of the whole staff and trainees. In the introduction, the impressive utterance by Kusakabe Sensei “We are already a family” relived the tension of all in the room. Afterwards, Yoshida Sensei handed over the Certificate of acceptance to each trainee, and the trainees gave back the folk costume as the token of appreciation.

At the end of opening ceremony, the schedule, purpose, and importance of the training was re-confirmed. Additionally, Yoshida Sensei highlighted that what you could create from hints given by the training was essential.
