

Report

Title: Research based policy making

Lecturer: Tatsuya Kusakabe Sensei

Contents: First, Kusakabe Sensei explained what education is what it means to young students and the importance of the quality of education at a young age. He also explained his research aim and what he has been researching over the past 20 years in the UK and also in other developing countries.

After that, he explained the lesson study project that CICE is trying to conduct in Indonesia and its timeline.

He then explained more about his work in Bangladesh, and he started to explain peer tutoring. He also explained his work in Vietnam regarding the Lesson Study and the struggle they went through to implement it.

2023-10-12

Report

Title: Education and labor market success

Lecturer: Seonkyung Choi Sensei

Contents: In this lecture, they learned about the correlation between Education and labor market, and ,at the beginning , the factors which is necessary to improve own market value. The lecturer explained that the wage and employment is decided by the several factors and the importance of the vocational education, using some data. After that, they started the discussion in the group of 4 people about importance of education, decent occupation, and non-cognitive skill. Afterwards, they shared the opinion in the classroom and did seek the common concerns among the different countries.

